

BARGAINS THAT WILL SAVE
You many a dollar will escape you if you fail to read carefully and regularly the advertising of local merchants in this paper.

VOL. XLI. NO. 18.

CANFIELD MAHONING COUNTY, OHIO, AUGUST 10, 1917.

The Mahoning Dispatch

THEY ALWAYS COME BACK
Every person who gives us a printing job is satisfied. When he has another printing order he never thinks of going elsewhere. If you need printing drop in and see us.

$1.00 A YEAR

ISLAND

Aug. 8—Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Morgan and daughter Anna, after spending a week here with friends, left Sunday for their home in Pittsburgh.

Henry Riehl and sisters visited Wm. and Katie Brubaker at East Lewis-town Sunday.

Mrs. Susan Compton on Sunday accompanied Aaron Brubaker and family on an auto trip to Wadsworth where they will spend the week with friends and relatives.

Rev. Harvey Horst and family were entertained Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Weaver.

Miss Agnes Weaver is assisting Mrs. Maggie Lehman.

Harry Showalter and daughter Esther, Andrew Agnew and Melissa Weaver visited Mrs. Salome Weaver and daughter Ida, Sunday.

The following guests were entertained Sunday by Mrs. Lovina Horst: Henry Lehman and family, Merle Witmer and sisters Emma and Iva, Mrs. Susie Lehman, son Benjamin and daughter Priscilla and Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Lehman.

Miss Mabel Turney is doing housework for Mrs. Myrtle Leshner.

J. M. Knopp and daughters Lizzie and Mary, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Knopp, John and Edna Wilmer, Israel, Amos, Stella and Hannah Wenger, David Lehman and Miss Wenger of Virginia were entertained Sunday at dinner by Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Weaver.

Harvey Rohrer and Miss Maggie Kurtz of Beaver township passed over the Island Sunday evening.

Adin Brubaker of East Lewis-town, Isiah Riehl, Joseph Wenger, Adin and Samuel Martin called on Norman Lehman, Sunday.

Friends to the number of 41 gathered surprise fashion at the home of Ed. Brudery Thursday evening in honor of Mrs. Brudery's birthday anniversary.

The evening was pleasantly spent in a social manner and ice cream, cake and raspberries were served at a late hour. Those present were Eli Slagle and family, G. D. Rowe and family, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Whit and son, H. H. Calvin and family, Mrs. Martha Wisler and daughter May, Nick Pavic, August Paulin, Misses May and Gay Roller, D. R. Lehman and family, Barney Weikart and son of Washingtonville, James Perkins and family and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Brudery, of Sebring, William Jacob, Fred and John Shent and Miss Freda Shent of Beloit.

Mr. and Mrs. Adam Wenger and son David were Sunday guests of J. D. Blosser and family.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Calvin and family Sunday with D. R. Lehman and family.

F. W. Calvin and family, E. N. Beardsley and family, H. H. Calvin and family, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Morgan and daughter Anna May, D. R. Lehman and family and Miss Pearl Calvin spent Saturday at Lake Milton and Nelson Ledges.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Martin and Mrs. Minerva Yoder called Sunday on Alvin Detroit and family.

Christ Leshner visited his sister, Mrs. Abe Weaver, Sunday.

Alvin Yoder is employed with Clate Renkenberger's threshing crew.

Mrs. Fannie Weaver and children called on her brother, S. R. Martin, Sunday.

Miss Pearl Calvin of Youngstown is spending her vacation with her aunt, Mrs. Bertha Lehman.

Earl Kilgus and family, Mr. Emmon of Youngstown, David and Mark Kilgus, Mrs. Myrtle Leshner and Miss Mabel Turney called at John Detroit's Sunday.

The first annual outing of the Dairy-men's Association will be held Wednesday, Aug. 15, at the home of J. L. Keller, south of Unionville, Columbiana county. All dairymen, with their families, are cordially invited to attend. The women's basket dinner will be a big attraction.

MARQUIS

Aug. 7—Allen Cline and daughter of Crane Street called at Clarence Miskell's Saturday.

Helen Hoffman of Greenford is visiting relatives here.

Coy brothers bought an auto truck. J. D. Schaaf and wife were here from Ellsworth Sunday.

Lewis Hoffman was in Youngstown Saturday.

Wm. Phares of Perry county is again employed at the Clay mine.

Geo. Wilson was here from Canfield Saturday evening.

Lewis Hoffman and wife entertained friends from Youngstown one evening last week.

Miss Nancy Collar spent last week in Youngstown, the guest of R. R. Miller and family.

W. D. Shirley, who has been sick for some time, is improving.

James Mitchell is employed in Canfield.

L. A. Coy and family of North Lima and Geo. Slagle and family of Beloit were callers here Sunday.

A number from here attended the funeral of Mrs. Leah Clay at Greenford last week.

Mrs. Geo. McLarty and children of Locust Grove were here one evening last week.

Mrs. Lucinda Hollabaugh of Calla visited at Lewis Hoffman's Sunday.

WEST AUSTINTOWN

Aug. 8—There will be preaching next Sunday evening by Rev. Hensel. Mrs. Hensel, who has been ill for several weeks, is slowly improving.

August Haska, George Anderson and O. Rourke recently motored to Homeworth.

Mrs. Caleb Martig and daughter Lavada of near Garfield recently visited relative here.

Madison Schisler has completed building a chimney for William May in Austintown.

Roy Davis of this village is also one of the men drafted.

Mrs. Bert Knight and daughter Ruth have returned from a visit with her parents in Jackson township.

Fine weather for making hay but corn and potatoes are greatly in need of rain.

Miss Nina Anderson has returned from a visit at Henry Wamaker's in Sothington township, Trumbull county.

Ray Brifolge is employed by the Republic Rubber Co. in Youngstown.

MILLVILLE

Aug. 8—Wednesday afternoon the Larkin club of ten met at the home of Mrs. Fred Oesch, eight members being present. Mrs. J. B. Moore of Salem was an invited guest. A pleasant feature of the meeting was a fine luncheon served by the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Holwick and daughters Hazel and Winifred spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Holloway of Columbiana.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Oesch of Damascus were guests of relatives here Sunday.

The Red Cross address to be given Sunday, Aug. 12, at 10:30 by Mrs. Virginia Mercer of Salem promises to be a very interesting one.

John L. Zimmerman of Springfield spent Sunday with his aged father, Abram Zimmerman. He is serving on the exemption board in the 19th district his stay was necessarily short.

The Reese-Thomas reunion was held Sunday at the home of George Thomas, W. Ohtown. Members of the family were present from Warren, Sharon, Youngstown, Niles, Mineral Ridge and Salem. A most enjoyable time was had by all present.

A few from here attended the funeral of the late Mrs. Katherine Barber, former resident of this community, on the Goshen road.

E. J. Smith of Lisbon was a caller in the village Monday.

Charles Haldi of Damascus spent Sunday here with relatives.

Mrs. Susan Dunn, who visited in Youngstown the past week, returned home Sunday.

Kerns & Oyster of Salem are the carpenters employed to erect a tippie for the Salem mine, the old one giving way Friday while hoisting. Luckily no one was hurt by the falling timbers.

W. W. Dow of Salem has the contract to drill a well on the Salem Co. property.

John S. Roller returned home to Lowellville after a brief visit at the home of his sisters, Misses Samantha and Mattie Roller, near here.

NEW BUFFALO

Aug. 8—A number of our people are sick.

William McCormick and wife of Struthers called at Henry Hess' Saturday night.

I. N. Hixon on Sunday entertained members of his family and several friends in honor of his son Clyde who enlisted in the army and left this week expecting to enter a training camp.

A. J. Beard and family spent Sunday in Youngstown with Tod Parks and family.

Frederick of Youngstown called at Mrs. Emma Beard's Saturday afternoon.

Freeman Beard and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer James and daughter Lilian and Jacob Ault of Struthers spent Sunday at Clinton Beard's.

Matrice Goodman and family of Toot's Corners and Mrs. Schurrnberger and son Roy and Grover Schurrnberger and wife of Greenford and Allen Weaver and family were Sunday visitors at Paul Messerly's.

Harry Beard and family of Youngstown called on his mother, Mrs. Emma Beard, Sunday.

Among the visitors at Clark Baer's Sunday were Casper Kriner and family. Mrs. Will Wormley and daughter Mildred, Ross Wormley and wife and Will Wormley, all of Youngstown.

Mrs. E. C. Moff and Nora, Albert and Oliver Moff spent Sunday afternoon with Dr. Francis Renkenberger's in Youngstown.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Guterba of Columbiana visited at John Elder's Sunday.

Jonas Kohler and family visited his father Sunday.

Hugh Knauf and family of Toot's Corners were at Lewis Grease's Sunday.

Mrs. Casper Kriner and children of Youngstown are spending some time with Clark Baer and family.

HICKORY

Aug. 8—Ruhl Wright was in Youngstown Saturday.

J. C. Gordon of Ellsworth had business here Sunday.

Mrs. M. E. Bowman Mrs. Clyde Bowman and daughter Esther spent Friday in Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Cramer, Mr. and Mrs. John Gordon, son Harry, daughter Lola Ruth spent Sunday in Youngstown.

C. M. Wineland and daughters Bessie and Bertha spent Saturday evening in Salem.

Miss Rachel Dushman gave a party last Wednesday evening for a number of friends.

The Woman's Missionary Society of Concord church held a most pleasant session at the home of Mrs. R. M. Justice Wednesday, Aug. 1. Mrs. D. Campbell and Mrs. R. A. Manchester of Canfield, who organized the society twelve years ago, were with us. The charter members were all present with the exception of Mrs. Margaret Bowman, deceased, and Mrs. H. L. Greenwalt of Newark, O. Refreshments were served to about 30 guests.

GETTYSBURG

Aug. 8—Mr. and Mrs. Ira Calvin were in Gettysburg Thursday evening.

Mrs. Joe Kindig and daughter Lois of Greenford called on friends here Saturday.

James Cotter and family of Pittsburg returned home Monday after spending a few days at F. E. Steep's.

Dr. G. W. Dunn and family of Salem called on friends here Thursday.

David and David Clay and Nila Schaffer of Canfield spent Sunday at W. S. Clay's.

Mrs. J. U. Walter of Greenford called on friends here Saturday.

Mrs. W. S. Clay entertained the Ladies Aid Society of the Lutheran church last Saturday.

W. H. Smith was a Salem visitor Saturday.

Mrs. Elizabeth Rhodes of Greenford visited Wednesday with her sister, Mrs. Smith.

The Loyal Daughters of the Discipline church of Greenford will hold an ice cream festival at Allen Culp's, east of Greenford, next Saturday evening.

BERLIN CENTER

Aug. 8—Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Russell and daughter Alberta were in Alliance Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Reaser of Ellsworth visited their son here Sunday.

Mrs. W. G. Paxson has returned home after spending a week in Cleveland.

Mrs. Caroline Hartzell attended the funeral of her cousin, Allen Kline, in Girard Friday.

Dr. and Mrs. W. T. Gudge celebrated their 10th wedding anniversary Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Osborne Wilson and children Hazel and Albert visited Mrs. A. M. Westover Sunday.

Mrs. Chester Harmon was an Alliance caller Monday.

Arthur Beckman of Minerva visited his brother here Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Merle Woodward were at Lake Brady Sunday.

Roy Booth was a caller in North Benton Sunday evening.

Miss Grace Burky is visiting her cousin, Mr. and Mrs. Ross McDowd, at Virginia Corners, Mr. and Mrs. Scott and children of Canfield, Grover Diehl and children.

Mrs. Ernest Scott and children of Canfield were entertained at supper Wednesday evening by Mrs. Nettie Painter.

Mr. and Mrs. Lance Allen and children visited the former's parents at Mantua Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Leatha Cline and brother Frank were in Alliance Saturday.

I. J. Smith was in Youngstown on business Friday.

Theo Nichols is recovering from his recent sickness.

Miss Mary Jeannerling from Salem visited her parents here over Sunday.

Mrs. Ransom Woodward and son of Alliance motored through here Wednesday with their new auto.

The Burky reunion will be held this Saturday at the Canfield fair grounds.

The Shilliday reunion will be held at Robt. Shilliday's at Ravenna Aug. 18. All relatives are requested to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Taylor and daughter from Detroit, Mich., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Paxson.

Speaking of the latter's parents, Mr. Foulk, well known Berlin Center horseman, the Carrollton Free Press Standard says: "Mr. Foulk is remembered by the horsemen that attended the Carroll county fair years ago, for undoubtedly he has been regularly brought his horses to the race track."

He was one of the few men who raised, trained and drove his own horses. The older patrons of the Carroll county fair speed events will remember him.

Minnie Shaffer, Sadie Burns, Gray Bayard, Bismark Boy, the first trotter to go on our track, to name a few, 2:29 1/4. Later he came with Rev. Mack Waupaca, Billy Williams, and Wan Aetelle. He probably won more races and money than any other man at the local fair. Lem was a developing speed, and in training and his frugality and thrift he owned two farms and had a comfortable bank account at his death."

MAPLE GROVE

Aug. 8—Some time since we have seen any items from this place so we are glad to hear from them.

Farmers are busy hauling in wheat and finishing their haying.

David Fitzpatrick and wife of Jersey, New York, spent several days here with his brother, Clark Fitzpatrick.

A turtle supper was served at the home of U. D. Calvin to a few invited guests.

Aaron Brubaker and family called on Allen Culp Sunday.

John Weikart and family spent Saturday evening at Idora park. By Mary Burkholder and Thelma Culp spent Tuesday evening in Greenford.

Mrs. Amelia Mellinger has returned home to Salem.

F. H. Hendricks is assisting Urban Calvin with his harvest work.

The Grove orchestra called on Ira Cool near Canfield Saturday evening. Watermelon was served.

Mrs. Pearl Jordan of Calla called Friday on her grandmother, Mrs. John Dressel, and Mrs. James Feicht and Alice Hendricks of this place.

Mrs. John Anderson and daughter Edith have returned home after spending some time with her sister, Mrs. Roy Brooke, and other friends.

Miss Hannah Fitzpatrick of Cleveland is here visiting her sister, Mrs. C. M. Fitzpatrick.

Russell and Gertrude Huffman spent Sunday with Melvin and Thelma Culp.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Ed. Buzard and son Charley of Columbiana and Mr. and Mrs. August Fletchergarten of Youngstown were Sunday visitors of Wallace Corral and family.

GEEBURG

Aug. 8—Mrs. Geo. Jerry and baby called on Mrs. John Bartholomew Monday.

Manthus Yeager and family visited A. B. Miller Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Samuel Gault called in Canfield Tuesday forenoon.

Guy and Ethel Musser of Canfield visited their sister, Bertha Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bartholomew spent Sunday afternoon in Struthers and later called on Mr. and Mrs. Earl Yeager in Youngstown, who are the proud parents of a fine baby girl.

Geo. Jerry spent Tuesday in Youngstown.

Frank Jones of West Austintown has a class of nine scholars here to whom he is teaching music.

David and John Burkley have been at home the last week assisting Joe Bixler with his harvesting.

Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Bunts were in Canfield Saturday evening.

Samuel Gault, Arlie Miller, Roy Williams and Manthus Yeager threshed their wheat this week.

Delos Williams was a Sunday evening caller at John Bartholomew's.

Ursula Yeager and Geo. Jerry spent Saturday afternoon in Youngstown.

Mrs. Joe Bixler and Eugene Beckey were in Canfield Monday afternoon.

Farmers are busy finishing haying and some are cutting oats.

NORTH CANFIELD STREET

Aug. 8—Wm. Harding, a life-long resident of this street, has sold his farm to his brother Frank of Cleveland and expects to move to Youngstown before fall and live a retired life. We rejoice at his good fortune, but are all sorry to have him leave.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hull and daughter Laverne of Canfield spent Sunday with J. C. Allspaugh's.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Cruthers and two children visited M. J. Cruthers Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Yeager of Youngstown, formerly of this street, are the proud parents of a baby girl.

Wm. Gardner has purchased a new touring car.

Calvin Musser ate his Sunday dinner with his mother, Mrs. Eva Musser. Wm. Yeager called at H. C. Clay's Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. B. K. DeCamp and Drayton Martin of Youngstown spent Sunday night at Wm. Gardner's.

Rebecca Yeager is spending some time in Ohtown.

H. C. Clay and family spent Sunday afternoon with E. E. Matthews in Ellsworth.

Rebecca Yeager was in Canfield Monday.

Beatrice Clay is suffering with an abscess in a tooth.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank DeCamp spent Sunday with Samuel Rupert of New Buffalo.

Wm. Gardner and family called on Miss Alice Neff of Ohtown Sunday.

Sherman Court went Sunday to see his sister, Mrs. Sarah Sanzenbacher, who is in the Youngstown hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Foster Cox of Youngstown called on the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Allspaugh, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bartholomew of Geesburg assisted Frank Curn several days the past week.

Glenn DeCamp and family of Youngstown spent Saturday with his parents.

Miss Helen Wehr and Armond Hauk were Sunday evening callers at Frank DeCamp's.

Mrs. Wm. Gardner and mother, Mrs. Mary Shaffer, called on Mrs. H. C. Clay Friday evening.

Speaking of the latter's parents, Mr. Foulk, well known Berlin Center horseman, the Carrollton Free Press Standard says: "Mr. Foulk is remembered by the horsemen that attended the Carroll county fair years ago, for undoubtedly he has been regularly brought his horses to the race track."

He was one of the few men who raised, trained and drove his own horses. The older patrons of the Carroll county fair speed events will remember him.

Minnie Shaffer, Sadie Burns, Gray Bayard, Bismark Boy, the first trotter to go on our track, to name a few, 2:29 1/4. Later he came with Rev. Mack Waupaca, Billy Williams, and Wan Aetelle. He probably won more races and money than any other man at the local fair. Lem was a developing speed, and in training and his frugality and thrift he owned two farms and had a comfortable bank account at his death."

BLANCO

Aug. 8—Mr. and Mrs. Orris Mead spent Sunday with Clyde Orr and family of Rosemont.

Mr. and Mrs. Elton Force and daughter Eleanor of Youngstown and Mr. and Mrs. James Cessna and son Delmus of Rosemont spent Sunday with parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Force.

Mr. and Mrs. Porter Snook, Miss Frances Snook and Mr. Hartzell of North Benton motored to Nelson Ledges and spent Sunday.

Jacob Helsel and family spent Saturday evening in Youngstown.

H. E. Kale and family spent Sunday in Berlin Center, guests of Eli Rakestraw and family.

Perry and Howard Evans of Diamond were Sunday guests of W. F. Renkenberger.

Walter Helsel was in Columbus the past week.

Frank Ohl and family of Church Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Hollabaugh of Rosemont, Archie Wunderlin and family of Columbiana, Susie Leyda and Harold Klyde of Canfield, Mr. and Mrs. Burton Kale and daughter Rose and Miss Margaret Jenkins of Pritchard were Sunday guests of E. Kale and family.

David Porter of Warren spent last week with his parents here.

Mrs. Charles Albert Keeler spent several days last week with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. James Weasner.

Mrs. Hiram Helsel spent Saturday with her mother, Mrs. David Marshall, of Diamond.

Mrs. James Weasner spent Friday at Elgin Middleton's.

John Diver and family of Berlin Center and Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Smith of Warren were Sunday callers at E. Kale's.

APPLE AVENUE

Aug. 8—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barber of Goshen and Mr. and Mrs. Homer Barber of Beloit were visitors Sunday at Harvey Goodman's.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Blott were in Salem Saturday.

Mrs. Hugh Knauf, attended services Sunday at the Paradise Reformed church of New Buffalo.

Miss Twila Hoffman of Youngstown is spending a few weeks with her parents.

Miss Pearl Strickler of Donora, Pa., was a guest recently of her cousin, Ethel McFeeley.

E. J. Justice spent Sunday with friends at Diamond.

Miss Jessie Long of Salem is spending a few days with relatives on the Avenue.

F. R. Paulin and family and Miss Mata Haller visited in East Palestine Sunday.

Mrs. R. M. Justice was surprised one evening recently by thirty friends gathering to remind her of her birthday. Lunch consisting of ice cream, cake and watermelon was served. All had a pleasant time.

Ambrose Baird and wife were New Albany callers Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Williams and daughter Allen, Mrs. Rebecca Manchester and daughter Hazel spent Sunday at Eli Goodman's in Canfield.

Harvey Goodman was in Canton one day last week.

It takes a lot to please some people who are not very pleasing themselves.

NORTH LIMA

Aug. 8—The judges in charge of the war gardens of the school children of the district inspected the gardens last week. Of the 22 gardens the 10 best will be selected, and these will compete in the county contest which will close in a short time. A number of money prizes will be distributed.

Floyd Obenauf of this place was united in marriage Friday to Miss Edna M. Heiser of Berlin Center. The bride formerly taught school at Eureka.

Miss Edith Longstreet, who is in the Youngstown hospital convalescing from a serious surgical operation, will be able to leave the hospital this week.

A business meeting of the North Lima grange has been called for this evening.

Mr. and Mrs. John Carr and Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Chambers of Youngstown spent Sunday with Dr. Chambers and wife.

H. E. Mentzer and family will spend a short vacation at Conneaut, leaving here today. W. E. Mentzer will assist in the store during their absence.

W. E. Mentzer and wife and son Paul and Nelson Mentzer and family enjoyed a motor trip to Canton Sunday.

Rev. Denning and son of Lisbon spent Saturday with Rev. J. H. Graf.

George Bloom has purchased a home in Youngstown and with his family will move to the city in a short time. Mr. Bloom has been employed there several years. Their house here will be occupied by Jacob McCormick and family. Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Stewart will also move to Youngstown, and Mrs. Ada E. and children of New Buffalo will move into the Marks flat.

Mrs. Carl Buzard and daughter Betty of Denver, Mrs. C. A. Leedy, Mrs